Exams begin promptly at the time posted; therefore, students are expected to be in the exam room ready to begin at the appointed time. Exams end promptly when noted. It is advised that students be on campus 30 minutes prior to exam start time and in the exam room 10 minutes prior to start time.

Students are not required to be on campus unless they have an exam scheduled and may not leave campus between scheduled exams. The Reading Room will be open for study. The US Honors Lounge will be limited to quiet study. Specific study sessions may also be scheduled.

All exams will take place on the third floor of the Mansion unless otherwise noted.

Exam conflicts must be worked out before Friday, May 12 and an Exam Reschedule Form completed. Students may not take exams before or after the exam days without permission from the Division Director. Exam reschedule request forms are required and are available in the Mansion Reading Room.
